Elephant comes in bold, italic and underlined.

Elephant is a true type font. (It will be used on both screen and page.)

There was no history on Elephant, and it is not often used in newer systems. I believe it is too similar to other fonts to be necessary.

Elephant is best used to create titles and headings. It can be sued on professional documents, as it is simple yet stylistic.

Steph Jourdan
October 29, 2004

Here’s a picture of a real elephant for you to enjoy.