Sponsored by the English Department in memory of Professor Robert Brome, the $100 award will be given to the outstanding senior in creative writing as determined by the English Department Creative Writing faculty. Any senior in the university is eligible to be considered for the Brome Award. Entries should be submitted to the English office (409 Stevenson) no later than April 1. All entries should be typed and submitted with a cover page stating your name, university identification number, major, and local address. Please do not put your name on the creative writing itself. Poetry, fiction, and drama, but not essays, are eligible. Submissions must consist of five poems, or one play, or a minimum of 25 pages of prose fiction.

(The English Department reserves the right not to confer a Brome Creative Writing Award in any given year.)
